

Children and Adults with Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder (CHADD)

PARENT TO PARENT: FAMILY TRAINING ON AD/HD

Parent to Parent: Family Training on ADHD is a multi-session, interactive and educational program for adults and parents of children with ADHD.

This class series provides scientifically researched, evidence-based educational information and support for families who are dealing with ADHD and learning to navigate its challenges. Teachers and professionals are also welcome.

Our workshop is a multi-session, interactive and educational program for adults and parents of children with ADHD. This unique program includes a comprehensive resource handbook as part of the seven, two-hour interactive sessions that will cover the following topics:

1. Overview of ADHD

presented by Mike Carr, Elementary School Counselor

2. Assessment to Multimodal Treatment

presented by Karl McMullin, Family Nurse Practitioner

3. Managing the Impact(s) of ADHD on the Family

presented by Jenni Heiner, Parent

4. Developing Parenting Strategies and Positive Behavior Interventions

presented by Chris Nelson, Youth Counselor

5. Educational Rights for Your Child with ADHD

presented by Clay Mills, School Psychologist

6. Building an Education Team: Bridging the Gap Between Home and School

presented by Kris Bybee, Parent and Nurse

7. Resiliency, Teen Challenges & Future Success

presented by Mark Heiner, Parent

The cost of the class series is $60 per single/couple. Classes begin Thursday, February 2, 2012 from 6:30pm-8:30pm at Vista Charter School located at 585 E. Center Street in Ivins. Space is limited so register early. Scholarships are available to those who qualify. Pre-registration is required.

For questions or more information, contact Jenni Heiner at 435-986-9001.

To register, email jheiner@infowest.com

Class Series Endorsed by: Children and Adults with Attention-Deficit Disorders, CHADD of Utah, Utah State PTA Education Commission, The Utah Collaboration for ADHD (UCADD), Intermountain Health Care (IHC), The Utah Education Association (UEA), The Edward G. Callister Foundation, Intermountain Healthcare, The Intermountain Pediatric Society, Valley Mental Health and Davis, Weber /Ogden, Salt Lake, Murray, Granite, Carbon, South Sanpete, San Juan, Wasatch and Washington School Districts.